

Message from Natalie Adams, Director of Member Services - We are on our second season of our health insurance benefit program that provides competitive coach, recreational coach, judge, event director and club owners/managing director members access to health insurance through our USAG Member Insurance Benefits Center. New this season, we have some exciting new products available like group benefits that club owners are able to offer their employees, as well as voluntary products like AD&D, hospital indemnity and group term life insurance.

We have information webinars scheduled through the end of the year that we are marketing to all members. These webinars cover information to help members understand the products available to them and the registration process. Also providing a link to the USAG Insurance Benefits Center site, that includes information including flyers and previously recorded webinars.

Thornton's Invitational - Come to League City and enjoy a great meet! The deadline is rapidly approaching and we are anticipating filling up, so sign up today! Click HERE to see all the information.

Texas Tough Invitational - The deadline has been extended to December 15th. Get your season started with Texas Tough! Find all the info HERE.
